

Byron Katie at the Anat Baniel Method Center Joint Benefit

The Work for parents, caregivers, professionals, and family members of children with challenges and anyone interested.

Marin County, California August 29, 2014

No one is prepared to have a child with challenges. Parents are flooded with fear, guilt, confusion, anger, loss, and often hopelessness. These feelings are common and can lead to profound suffering. Byron Katie is an exceptional teacher who helps people transform suffering into well-being. The Work can free parents, caregivers, other family members and professionals to love and help their child in even more powerful ways. Everyone is welcome.

Byron Katie is world-renowned for The Work. She has one job; to show people how to stop suffering. When Katie appears, lives change. Her simple yet powerful process of inquiry is called The Work.

Katie has been bringing The Work to millions of people for more than 25 years and has brought freedom to people all over the world. Byron Katie's six books include the bestselling Loving What Is, I Need Your Love—Is That True?, and A Thousand Names for Joy. For more information, visit thework.com

ABM Foundation mission is to extend our reach for providing breakthrough outcomes to children with special needs and their families, using the unique NeuroMovement® approach of the Anat Baniel Method®, verified by leading-edge research in neuroscience. By helping the parents in their journey to help their child, the child benefits.

Anat Baniel is best-selling author of Move Into Life and Kids Beyond Limits. She's the founder of the Anat Baniel Method®, a science-based approach that transforms the lives of children and adults, helping them move beyond pain and limitation and reach new levels of performance.
